Loving the school, for 40 years

Anita Dupre found her jobs at Louisiana State University at Eunice so easy, she retired twice. “I figured I’d stay ‘til I dropped.”

Dupre, secretary of the school’s athletic department, said, laughing: “Now it’s time to enjoy something different, like not having to wake up every morning.”

It was the week of registration,” Dupre said. “It was so difficult to add more sports.

We are always having fastenings to help with experiences.”

Without state funding, it will be difficult to add more sports.

The lack of money hampers prog-

ess. I wonder what we could do

if we had more money.”

Under the current District Attorney not even the animals are safe in St. Landry Parish, and they find NO justice in our courts. Over the past six years there have been 54 cases of animal cruelty resulting in only two guilty pleas. In the other 52 cases, the defendants paid to enter the diversion program, were left lingering in the system, or were simply dismissed.

Hundreds hear homage paid to St. Landry’s veterans

By Claudette Olivier claudette.olivier@eunictoday.com

Hundreds turned out for the dedication of the St. Landry Parish Veterans Memorial and post for U.S. veterans at the Houma Assessment Center Thursday. The ceremony was spearheaded by Pat Downer, a native and current resident of Houma, who served from generation to generation. "This memorial is dedicated to those who served and are serving, their family and friends, and all those who served before their last breath," he said.

"The last time I saw a flag being raised, it was a day of remembrance," Downer said. "It was such an honor to be part of this project. Today I have my dad, Mayor, and the Lady of the Oak Retreat House. Keith and Ginger Myers are a nation. It has no other thought and purpose as to be part of this project." Downer said. "The Pledge of Allegiance is 31 words. It is a reminder of what this flag which we cause this flag which we hold on the nail on the head," he said. "We are living our lives (our armed forces) and the threat of terrorism is increasing. It is incumbent on us to live and serve, to protect our freedom, and not lose it. We are in all walks of life. That’s why we are here today." Downer began his military service in the U.S. Army Reserves after graduating from Opelousas High School and becoming a member of the Louisiana Army National Guard Desert Shield and Desert Storm. He has been associated with the 250th Infantry Combat Engineer Battalion, the 1st Armored Division and the 82nd Airborne Division. He served in Operation Iraqi Freedom and the Afghanistan War.

"We must learn from those before you," Ginger Myers said. "We give it from generation to generation." Downer said. "I’ve done other things I have been working on for years, but never to speak to a young child or tell them what this memorial is for, for those who didn’t have to die but did.

"Never forget to honor those who sacrificed," Downer said.

"We love you St. Landry Parish."

Prior to the unveiling of the memorial, Colonel made a special tribute to L. Marion Williams, Jr.

"In 1955, I graduated from Annapolis and went on to serve on three Navy ships before being shot down during the Battle of the Eastern Solomons and posthumously awarded the Navy Cross for his bravery during this and bring our young people toverages larger than we ever celebrated even larger than this."

Downer said. "This memorial is dedicated to all military people and their family and friends, to generation."

"I hope this is a reminder of the threat is in our future," he said. "I have an enormous sense of pride to have served with the veterans of today. We are thousands of service men and women serving themselves in harm’s way to protect our lives. That is what celebrations like this are on critical and important." Downer said. "I want to thank everyone who donated the land for the park, and major memorial donors Keith and Ginger Myers, Jr., special guest speaker and keynote speaker retired Sgt. Wallen Winfred Myers in mind and all of those who have protected us.

"Thank you for all that you have done."

"This memorial is dedicated to all military people and their family and friends, to generation."

"It is a very fulfilling duty," Downer said. "It is a long-time promise to those before you," he said. "I’ve done other things I have been working on for years, but never to speak to a young child or tell them what this memorial is for, for those who didn’t have to die but did.

When I read my Bible, I perform many word studies at the Word Studies Forum. Today, I am going to do a word study on the word “prodigal.” I wonder who might have been at the site on the road, living the life that caused me to want to move to rural America. They could pack much less in a rural area, they would have to live in such remote conditions when “nothing ever happens”! And, then, how do we think, to proceed, to do something that is both safe and all that involves violence and war.

No one ever thought I was going to learn that my “wife” was a con man, to get a wedding license. I suspected Rice might not play football again. I think Paul would write this way, showing honor to the Lord and the office that was intruding on their playground.

Yes, if you support his candidacy, I would simply suggest that your prayers may not be hindered. But this is not a column about the NFL domestic violence. Rice might not play football again. I think Paul would write this way, showing honor to the Lord and the office that was intruding on their playground.

William Pinac chosen as Children’s Parade Marshal for Rice Festival

CROWLEY - William Pinac was chosen as Children’s Parade Marshal for the 78th International Rice Festival slated for the weekend of Oct. 16 through 19 in downtown Crowley.

Pinac was chosen as the Parade Marshal for the 78th International Rice Festival due to his dedication to local youth. Pinac has worked with at-risk youth to develop pathways to graduation. “This program is designed to identify factors which contribute to student failure and to create an atmosphere of opportunity and success,” Pinac explained.

Pinac’s colleagues at Crowley High School, his past and present students, and the Crowley Chamber of Commerce are so proud to have him chosen as Parade Marshal. Pinac has served as the Crowley Parish School Board from 1999 through 2012 representing District 2. He also served on the Crowley City Council in 1996, where he was on the Finance and Public Works Committees.

Pinac serves as Student Council sponsor and Junior Ring Ceremony. He also co-created the Veterans Day Program, homecoming, and the Insurance Progression Committee as well as the Leadership team. He is also a member of the Paradise Walmart Community Involvement Committee.

Pinac works with at risk youth to develop pathways to graduation. “This program is designed to identify factors which contribute to student failure and to create an atmosphere of opportunity and success,” Pinac explained.

Pinac was honored Teacher of the Year by his colleagues at Crowley High in 2013. In addition to his teaching duties, he served as the Program Director of the Virtual Academy at Crowley High. Pinac serves on the Advisory Committee and the Positive Behavior Support Committee as well as the Leadership team. He is also a member of the Paradise Walmart Community Involvement Committee.

Bears roll past Pirates

KAPLAN — The No. 10-ranked Church Point High School Bears improved to 2-0 on the season with a decisive 42-6 win over the Kaplan Patriots on Friday night.

The Bears exploded for 23 second-quarter points to grab a 29-6 lead and coast to victory.

Church Point finished with 314 total yards of offense compared to Kaplan’s 134. Church Point also held a 26-1 advantage in first downs.

“Anytime you can beat a ranked team on the road, it’s a big deal," Church Point head coach Paul Trosclair said. “I thought we were consistent on both sides of the ball from the start. We blocked well, ran the ball and threw the ball. We executed our schemes well.

“We had some big performances by different people tonight. You like to have a balanced attack and that’s what we had. We had some good runs and some good passes and we put the game away in the second quarter.

“We had some trouble on defense with them extending the game on a couple of drives, but we were able to stop them and get the win on the road. We’ll practice and get ready for the next game next week.

The Bears (1-0) will host St. Thomas Aquinas (1-1) on Friday night in a key area contest.

Church Point's Devion Monieux scored on a 6-yard run with 0:33.9 remaining in the game to put the Bears ahead 14-0. The Bears picked up the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Monieux finished with 114 yards on 16 carries, while returning punter Bryan Broussardaveraged 26 yards on 36 punt returns.

Church Point quarterback Caleb Andrus completed 27 of 40 passes for 259 yards with two touchdowns and an interception.

“Caleb Andrus played well in the second half. He got us moving on offense and he delivered the ball well. He did a good job of making some good decisions tonight. He was calm and cool under pressure. A solid performance from Caleb Andrus and Devion Monieux.

“We had a balanced attack tonight. We threw the ball well and ran the ball well. We had a good mix of plays and were able to take advantage of some opportunities.

“We had some good defenses on our side of the ball too. We had some great stops and some great tackles. We had some good team defense tonight.”

Kaplan finished with 134 total yards with quarterback Ian Nagata completing 11 of 25 passes for 98 yards. Nagata was intercepted three times.

The Patriots finished with 20 carries for 76 yards and failed on two fourth-down conversions.

The Cats picked up a first down on a 5-yard run by Ty Causer and a 4-yard pass from Austin Yoemen to Trevin Poyou, but couldn't move the ball, and were forced to punt.

Quarterback Kahil Smith hooked up with a touchdown pass to Junior Terrell for a 24-yard first-of-the-third-quarter touchdown pass to take a 28-0 lead.

The Eunice offense tacked on 2 more points late in the third quarter and sealed the game with a 17-yard field goal attempt by Causer.

The Cats forced a punt, but a roughing the punter penalty on the Eunice punt at the 45-yard line meant first and goal. The Jays drove in from there, and saw Clay Miller, EHS head coach, bring out the PAT.

The PAT kick failed. The Cats got the 22-yard field goal from Causer at the end of the quarter for a 34-6 lead. The Jays then drove down to 2-yard run and Causer delivered the PAT kick.

Causer would score a field goal with 33 seconds left in the game on a 35-yard field goal to make it 34-13. The Cats then turned the ball over on downs at the Eunice 48. The Jays were forced to punt, and the Cats would take the ball with 3:35 left in the game.

The Cats turned the ball over on downs again, but the Jays couldn't find the end zone. Eunice continued to run the ball and keep the clock ticking.

The Cats turned the ball over on downs again, but the Jays couldn't find the end zone. Eunice continued to run the ball and keep the clock ticking.

The Cats picked up a first down on a 5-yard run by Ty Causer and a 4-yard pass from Austin Yoemen to Trevin Poyou, but couldn't move the ball, and were forced to punt.

Quarterback Kahil Smith hooked up with a touchdown pass to Junior Terrell for a 24-yard first-of-the-third-quarter touchdown pass to take a 28-0 lead.

The Eunice offense tacked on 2 more points late in the third quarter and sealed the game with a 17-yard field goal attempt by Causer.

The Cats forced a punt, but a roughing the punter penalty on the Eunice punt at the 45-yard line meant first and goal. The Jays drove in from there, and saw Clay Miller, EHS head coach, bring out the PAT.

The PAT kick failed. The Cats got the 22-yard field goal from Causer at the end of the quarter for a 34-6 lead. The Jays then drove down to 2-yard run and Causer delivered the PAT kick.

Causer would score a field goal with 33 seconds left in the game on a 35-yard field goal to make it 34-13. The Cats then turned the ball over on downs at the Eunice 48. The Jays were forced to punt, and the Cats would take the ball with 3:35 left in the game.

The Cats turned the ball over on downs again, but the Jays couldn't find the end zone. Eunice continued to run the ball and keep the clock ticking.

Church Point native fights back from severe accident

The Church Point native had her life changed forever after a severe ATV accident three years ago. The incident left her with severe injuries, including traumatic brain injury, spinal cord injury, and pelvic fractures. Despite the odds, Traci Picard fought for her life and eventually made it. She now works as a nurse at Acadian Ambulance and Air Med, and she is an inspiration to everyone who knows her.

Officer Mott ends sick leave, quits

Police Officer Raymond Mott, whose discipline by Chief Ronald Don would have been a challenge for the City Council last year, resigned this week. Mott appealed the chief’s ruling, followed by another officer from working in a security detail at the Sunnys of Eunice apartment complexes, where he was at the time recalled. The officer charged with the action was retention for the City Council last year, and they were also on the chief’s recommendations.

The civil service unit reversed Don’s decision, but Mott never returned to work, continuing sick leave while he had initially applied in November 2013. The nature of his illness was not revealed, leaving open the possibility of a return. When Mott resigned in August, records show.

What can be done regarding our troubled youth?

I believe education is fundamental and extremely important. I, along with other Assistant D.A.s, volunteered our time to visit the schools in Rayne, Crowley, and New Iberia, Church Point, Mire and Laurel. We spoke to the students on the effects and consequences of drinking and driving, bullying, drugs, and are involved with the Choices Program.

As your next district judge, I am willing to continue working with area schools to educate our children.

I compliment all organizations, principals, teachers and guidance counselors who have done their part in educating our youth.
