Frances Grace Bennett of Groesbeck, at age 87, completed her earthly tasks and entered her reward in Heaven with her Savior Jesus. She passed away at Lindsey Medical Center on Monday, February 21, 2016.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, February 23, 2016 at the First Baptist Church in Groesbeck. Officiating was Rev. Tann (First Baptist Church of Groesbeck), Roy Tyrus, Sr. (Central Baptist Church of Thurman) and Rev. Enochart Beall (Lonie Star Baptist Church). Pallbearers were Laura Bookool and Soncie McLain, and Pat Mouser and Bruce Beall were vocalists. Concluding services were held at the Pavilion at Fannin County, followed by burial.

Frances was born on December 23, 1928 to Lue and Louie Brandon (Bradley) Gregory in Groesbeck. She was welcomed into the fold by sisters Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl. After graduating from Groesbeck High School in 1946, she attended Baylor University for two years.

On vote back to Groesbeck, she caught the eye of young Vernon Lee “Muggs” Bennett, who stated that he was going to marry her, but then he became acquainted. After marrying him, he stated that he was going to teach her something. He stated that on October 30, 1948, they were married.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as her nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as their nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as their nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as their nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as their nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.

As the matriarch of the Bennett family, she was a devoted mother, a grandmother, a great-grandmother, and a dedicated wife to her beloved husband, Muggs Bennett. She was a devoted mother to their son, Richard, and their daughter, Patricia Luster. Frances was the beloved mother to her siblings Margaret Jo (Gaud) and Mary Earl Bennett, as well as their nephews and nieces. She was the beloved mother to her children, Richard and Patricia Luster.